Harlem's Newsboys Cast 1,700

Votes in a Batch for Henry Kelly...

DARK HORSE TO COME.

Hundreds of Entries for the Comic Section of the Pageant.

The newsboys of Harlem, who idolize Henry Kelly, the candidate of the Harlem Club for monarch of the Coney Island Carnival of Fun, are anxious to see him as "King Henry" with a fair Queen of his own choosing, riding on the throne float at the head of the nightly pageant, Sept. 9 to 14, have been hunting for their friend, and a big box containing 1,700 Evening World voting coupons, cut from the second page of the paper and bearing the inscription "For King, Henry Kelly," was placed on the Mardis Gras Editor's desk, in Room 218, Pulitzer Building, this morning, by a committee of the "kids." There was a note with the ballots which said:

Kindly credit our friend, Henry Kelly, with 1,700 votes. Wishing him all the success in the world, we remain
HARLEM NEWSBOYS.

And so it happens that as the Bremen nears New York with William D. Koile, yesterday's leader, on board, the popular Harlem spirits ahead of him in the race for the Crown of the Isle of Joy.

Moving picture men added a bundle of votes for Frank A. Miller, the president of the Moving Picture Operators' Association, to others already received, and Mr. Miller has 266 votes to his credit to-day.

The Essex Social Club has sent Henry Kelly, an east side merchant, into the field as its candidate for King, and The Evening World stands ready to give him credit for all the votes the Essex men send in for him.

Samuel Kirsch, of a department store, Brooklyn, is nominated by "His Club-mates," but the name of the club is not given, and his votes are yet to come.

Peter Kosman of Woodhaven, is the nominee of his neighbors, led by Frank votes pledged to him to distance all others in the race.

The reader may learn just how Henry Kelly and Maurice Costello, who bid fair to be hot competitors for the crown of Coney, look by reference to their portraits presented here. Also get any idea of just how ridiculous George Stimpson, of No. 112 Bay Thirty-fifth street, Bensonhurst; Frank Shafer and Robert Miller of No. 24 East Thirty-fourth street, Manhattan, will make themselves as competitors for the $1,000 in cash prizes to be awarded by Chairman R. J. Geary's committee in the Comic and Character Costume competition in the nightly pageant. Mr. Geary is receiving hundreds of applications for entry. It costs nothing, and a thousand men, girls and children will complete and help make the Carnival of Fun the funniest show ever seen in the streets of this big town—at Coney Island.

No Evidence to Support Theft Charge Against Sport King Man.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Manager Thomas Pritchard of the Ring, London's biggest boxing arena, who was charged with complicity in the recent theft of jewels from the Kaiser's sister, Princess Frederick Charles, was dismissed in police court to-day. SILENT THIRD DEGREE GOT BALL FROM MAN IN BOX 24

Spectator at Game Tries to Get Away With Pellet, but Usher's Hypnotic Eyes Regain It.

At the Yanks-Cleveland game, yesterday, three men sat in box No. 24. A ball dropped in the box. One man, with a sweet smile and a chorus girl's giggle, picked up the ball and put it in his pocket. Yells came from every side.

"Throw that ball back!"

"Cheap skate!"

"Did you get your seat the same way?"

The man made no move to return the ball. An usher came and asked him for it. He shook his head. Another usher joined the first. The crowd kept yelling. The man shook his head again. He denied having the ball.

The two ushers took up positions beside the box. Without saying another word, they stood there and looked at the man while the crowd kept up its jeers. The man tried to watch the game, but he wasn't comfortable. When the ushers had stood there a half an hour, big Harry, the announcer, started to the telegraphers' stand to get the results at Cincinnati, the man in the box thought he was coming for the ball.

With another chorus girl's smile, he put his hand in his pocket, took out the ball and handed it to the announcer. Then the ushers went away.
